Course Summary

Intelligent Learning is a self-contained course that will give you the means to enable independent learning by enhancing the quality of pupils' questioning, dialogue and thinking across the curriculum in your school.

What is Intelligent Learning?

Intelligent Learning signifies the working of active minds capable of self-sustained reasoning and learning. Pupils become intelligent learners when they are able to use questions effectively at every stage of learning, when they become expert at using concepts to organise their thinking and when they are able to develop their ideas through dialogue with others, and with themselves.

On the disks

There are six DVD-video programmes, each lasting around 20 minutes, and an extensive collection of support materials to stimulate professional and curriculum development.

PROGRAMME 1. INTELLIGENT LEARNING: PRINCIPLES AND BENEFITS

Programme 1 explains the concept of Intelligent Learning and highlights the main benefits. It also introduces the contents of all the other programmes.

PROGRAMME 2. ENCOURAGING QUESTIONING

Programme 2 gives you practical ideas for helping pupils become independent learners by developing their powers of questioning

PROGRAMME 3. THINKING WITH CONCEPTS

Programme 3 shows how concepts are essential organising tools for thinking and learning and how teachers can help pupils become more expert in their use of concepts.

PROGRAMMES 4 AND 5. THINKING THROUGH DIALOGUE

These programmes show teachers orchestrating the sort of classroom dialogue that extends pupils' thinking and helps them become more effective and thoughtful learners.

PROGRAMME 6. IMPLICATIONS AND OUTCOMES

Programme 6 shows teachers from key stages 2 and 3 discussing the positive impact of Intelligent Learning in their schools and the implications for transfer between schools subjects

EXTENSIVE SUPPORT MATERIALS

The support CD will provide you with everything you need to run the Intelligent Learning training course for staff.
